授業目的

Basic English course I for NUIS (BE) is intended for freshmen who are experiencing difficulty with a certain area or many areas of English grammar. Even after having gone through English classes for six years, students may still trip up on various basic or advanced aspects of grammar. This class will assist students in identifying grammar items they have a recurring problem with and then tackle those issues with the aim of eliminating their errors completely.

The course is an important introduction to Communicative English Program (CEP) and American English courses, which at NUIS, takes place in a stimulating learning environment. It is divided into six levels on the basis of the results of the placement test (TOEIC BRIDGE). Students will make more effective progress by learning at the appropriate competence level. Each small class allows students to receive personalized attention from an instructor, and the encouragement to recognize their goals for the future and the means to achieve them.

The course also includes "Self-directed Learning" as a supplement to classroom learning. Through the SL carried out as part of this class, students also acquire the ability to take responsibility for their own studies. This experience in BE I helps them become proactive and autonomous language learners who are capable of effectively learning the foreign languages they choose as part of basic education, or the language they will be using while studying abroad.

Even after having gone through English classes for six years, students may still trip up on various basic or advanced aspects of grammar. This class will assist students in identifying grammar items they have a recurring problem with and then tackle those issues with the aim of eliminating their errors completely.

The course is an important introduction to Communicative English Program (CEP) and American English courses, which at NUIS, takes place in a stimulating learning environment. It is divided into six levels on the basis of the results of the placement test (TOEIC BRIDGE). Students will make more effective progress by learning at the appropriate competence level. Each small class allows students to receive personalized attention from an instructor, and the encouragement to recognize their goals for the future and the means to achieve them.

The course also includes "Self-directed Learning" as a supplement to classroom learning. Through the SL carried out as part of this class, students also acquire the ability to take responsibility for their own studies. This experience in BE I helps them become proactive and autonomous language learners who are capable of effectively learning the foreign languages they choose as part of basic education, or the language they will be using while studying abroad.
