授業目的

This course focuses on improving your oral communication in English as a Lingua Franca (ELF) and increasing your cross-cultural understanding. This will enable you to expand your horizons and interact more effectively with people from around the world. Fun and interactive lessons will develop your language proficiency while helping you gain confidence and fluency in English. Successful completion of this class is a prerequisite for CEP 2 for those who entered the university in 2018 or earlier.

各回の授業内容

CEP 1 is a Monday through Friday, one-semester course that contains lessons about a variety of everyday situations and topics, such as describing your interests, making requests, and discussing health. Each unit includes:

- ・ an introduction to the topic
- ・ a vocabulary and grammar section focusing on practical use
- ・ pronunciation practice
- ・ listening comprehension of short conversations
- ・ short, practical reading and writing activities
- ・ discussions and role-plays with classmates

Self-study:

Before each class, students should spend 15 minutes preparing presentation materials and doing extensive reading. After each lesson, students should spend 15 minutes reviewing the lesson's contents and doing any assigned homework.

成績評価方法

Grade percentage

30% Monday

60% Tuesday through Friday

10% Extensive Reading (ER)

Each teacher will announce the grade percentage and class rules in his/her class.

Grading method:

To pass CEP, you must fulfill both of the following conditions:

- ・ You have attended 80% or more of total class time;
- ・ Your classroom grade at the end of the semester is 60% or more.

Your teacher will announce to you the classroom grade breakdown in the first class.

Feedback: Before, during, and after the semester, you will receive feedback about your performance in class through face-to-face and written methods.

教科書・参考書

Your textbook will depend on your class placement.

Green, Orange, and Purple classes will use Four Corners 2 Second Edition (2019) by Jack C. Richards and David Bohlke. New York, NY: Cambridge University Press.

Yellow, Blue, and Red classes will use Four Corners 3 Second Edition. (2019) by Jack C. Richards and David Bohlke. New York, NY: Cambridge University Press.

In addition to the textbook, your teacher may use worksheets, handouts, video, and other materials.

Reading materials for the Extensive Reading (ER) portion of the course include Cambridge Readers and other materials of your choice, and are available in the campus library.

受講に当たっての留意事項

CEP1/2 General class rules (Applicable to all CEP1/2 classes)

Attendance:

1. Come to every class. You will fail this course if you are absent for 20% or more. The card readers are not used for CEP.
2. Come to class on time. If you are not in your seat at the beginning of class, you are considered absent once. For Monday classes, if you are late for 10 minutes or more, you are considered absent twice.
3. If you miss a class, visit this website and fill in the necessary information within the same day: <https://goo.gl/v3peKp>
You may be excused if you have a valid reason: For example, you are sick and you need to see a doctor. In this case, you need to submit a receipt from the clinic, etc. within seven days.
4. Go to the Academic-Student Affairs (Gakumu) Office as early as possible if you need to apply for an official leave (koketsu).

Participation:

1. Speak a lot of English in class. You will get a low grade or fail if you do not do so.
2. Participate actively and help other students.
3. Each teacher will announce his/her participation point policy.

Assessment:

1. Submit your own assignment by yourself. Never ask a classmate to submit it for you.
2. Your teachers will explain to you later about tests, quizzes and ER.
3. Don't miss any test or presentation. You will be given a chance to take a makeup test/quiz or do a makeup presentation if your absence has been excused (See No. 3 of Attendance rules), but 10% will be deducted from your test/quiz/presentation score. You will not be allowed to take a makeup test or do a makeup presentation if your absence is unexcused.

Other rules (You may be asked to leave if you don't obey them.):

1. Speak in English only.
2. Don't eat or drink in classrooms.
3. Keep your smartphones in your bags.
4. You can bring paper-based or electronic dictionaries to class. Ask your teacher about the rules related to dictionary use in class.
5. Put all books, notes and electronic devices away during tests/quizzes. You will be asked to stop taking a test/quiz and get a 0% score if you do not do so.
6. Bring your laptop to class every Monday. You will get your points deducted if you do not bring it.
7. Bring your orange book and a graded reader for ER every Monday. You will get your points deducted if you do not bring them.
8. Follow the rules set by each teacher.
9. Only use brand-new or unused textbooks. Don't buy used textbooks.
10. Contact Cynthia/Julius/Peter immediately if you have any problems or questions.

NOTE:

Talk to your teacher if you have any questions or problems about these rules. If you don' t do so by the end of the second week of the semester, that means you agree with all of the rules.

1. Speak a lot of English in class. You will get a low grade or fail if you do not do so.
2. Participate actively and help other students.
3. Each teacher will announce his/her participation point policy.

Assessment:

1. Submit your own assignment by yourself. Never ask a classmate to submit it for you.
2. Your teachers will explain to you later about tests, quizzes and ER.
3. Don't miss any test or presentation. You will be given a chance to take a makeup test/quiz or do a makeup presentation if your absence has been excused (See No. 3 of Attendance rules), but 10% will be deducted from your test/quiz/presentation score. You will not be allowed to take a makeup test or do a makeup presentation if your absence is unexcused.

Other rules (You may be asked to leave if you don't obey them.):

1. Speak in English only.
2. Don't eat or drink in classrooms.
3. Keep your smartphones in your bags.
4. You can bring paper-based or electronic dictionaries to class. Ask your teacher about the rules related to dictionary use in class.
5. Put all books, notes and electronic devices away during tests/quizzes. You will be asked to stop taking a test/quiz and get a 0% score if you do not do so.
6. Bring your laptop to class every Monday. You will get your points deducted if you do not bring it.
7. Bring your orange book and a graded reader for ER every Monday. You will get your points deducted if you do not bring them.
8. Follow the rules set by each teacher.
9. Only use brand-new or unused textbooks. Don't buy used textbooks.
10. Contact Cynthia/Julius/Peter immediately if you have any problems or questions.

NOTE:

Talk to your teacher if you have any questions or problems about these rules. If you don' t do so by the end of the second week of the semester, that means you agree with all of the rules.

授業目的

This course focuses on improving your oral communication in English as a Lingua Franca (ELF) and increasing your cross-cultural understanding. This will enable you to expand your horizons and interact more effectively with people from around the world. Fun and interactive lessons will develop your language proficiency while helping you gain confidence and fluency in English. Successful completion of this class is a prerequisite for CEP 2 for those who entered the university in 2018 or earlier.

各回の授業内容

CEP 1 is a Monday through Friday, one-semester course that contains lessons about a variety of everyday situations and topics, such as describing your interests, making requests, and discussing health. Each unit includes:

- ・ an introduction to the topic
- ・ a vocabulary and grammar section focusing on practical use
- ・ pronunciation practice
- ・ listening comprehension of short conversations
- ・ short, practical reading and writing activities
- ・ discussions and role-plays with classmates

Self-study:

Before each class, students should spend 15 minutes preparing presentation materials and doing extensive reading. After each lesson, students should spend 15 minutes reviewing the lesson's contents and doing any assigned homework.

成績評価方法

Grade percentage

30% Monday

60% Tuesday through Friday

10% Extensive Reading (ER)

Each teacher will announce the grade percentage and class rules in his/her class.

Grading method:

To pass CEP, you must fulfill both of the following conditions:

- ・ You have attended 80% or more of total class time;
- ・ Your classroom grade at the end of the semester is 60% or more.

Your teacher will announce to you the classroom grade breakdown in the first class.

Feedback: Before, during, and after the semester, you will receive feedback about your performance in class through face-to-face and written methods.

教科書・参考書

Your textbook will depend on your class placement.

Green, Orange, and Purple classes will use Four Corners 2 Second Edition (2019) by Jack C. Richards and David Bohlke. New York, NY: Cambridge University Press.

Yellow, Blue, and Red classes will use Four Corners 3 Second Edition. (2019) by Jack C. Richards and David Bohlke. New York, NY: Cambridge University Press.

In addition to the textbook, your teacher may use worksheets, handouts, video, and other materials.

Reading materials for the Extensive Reading (ER) portion of the course include Cambridge Readers and other materials of your choice, and are available in the campus library.

受講に当たっての留意事項

CEP1/2 General class rules (Applicable to all CEP1/2 classes)

Attendance:

1. Come to every class. You will fail this course if you are absent for 20% or more. The card readers are not used for CEP.
2. Come to class on time. If you are not in your seat at the beginning of class, you are considered absent once. For Monday classes, if you are late for 10 minutes or more, you are considered absent twice.
3. If you miss a class, visit this website and fill in the necessary information within the same day: <https://goo.gl/v3peKp>
You may be excused if you have a valid reason: For example, you are sick and you need to see a doctor. In this case, you need to submit a receipt from the clinic, etc. within seven days.
